THE CARDINAL

1951

DEDICATION

Mrs. Lola Overholser

The Class of '51 wishes to use this, the dedication of our Annual, as a means, though it is but a small one, to show our appreciation and most genuine gratitude to you, Mrs. Overholser, who has been our faithful guide and consultant throughout all our problems. We are sure that you will live always in our fondest memories of our Senior Year.

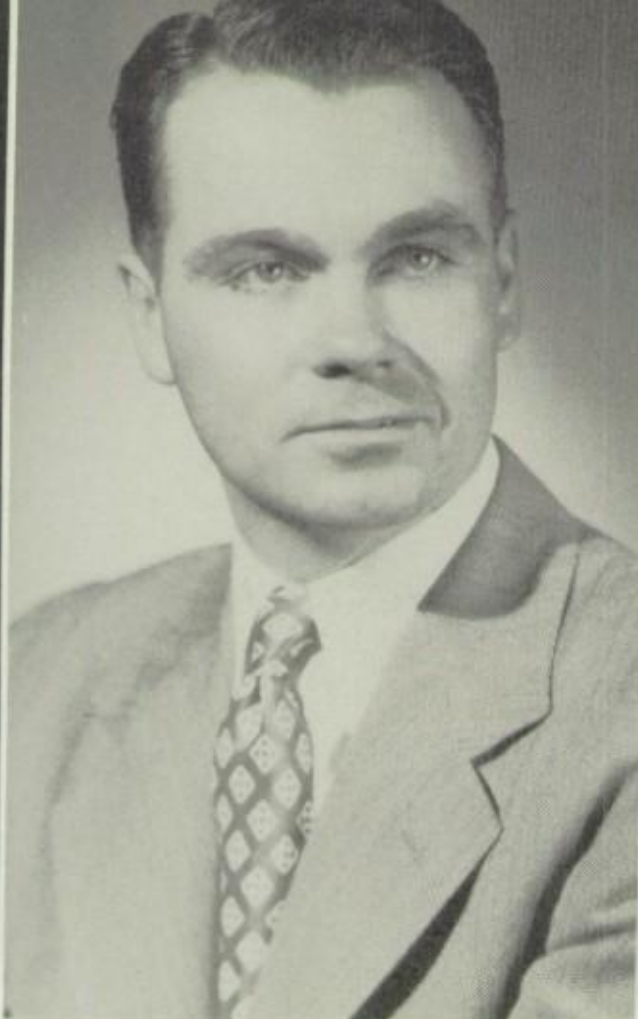

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

C. D. Dean, our Superintendent for the past two years, has worked untiringly for the best interests of our school. He is an able leader who is never too busy to be our friend.

Mrs. Jimmie Jones,
Office girl,
better known as "Marge."

CLASS PROPHECY

Champ Matson has been driver of a Trans-Continental Greyhound bus for 10 years, he has seen several members of the class of '51.

On his usual route one day he stopped at Geneva Beckley's Honky Tonk Cafe in California for dinner. In this cafe he found Elvin and Melvin Jones working for Geneva as bouncers. As Champ was reading a paper he read that Barbara Johnson was married and was filming a show, Cheaper by Two Dozen, with her own children as stars. He also read where Billy Meyers had invented an electric tooth brush. Just then the radio blared out a bulletin Miss Betty Ann Adam has replaced Judy Canova, and Dale Darnell has taken over Harry James orchestra and is to play in New York tonight. He quickly leaves the cafe and drives on down the street where he spies Mary Ruth Rempe's Beauty Saloon for men. Champ dashed in and came out with a New Atomic Home Permanent which Dale McConchie invented one day while curling his cows hair. On his way, leaving California he passed a Golf Court where he saw Don Meredith playing golf with Bob Hope and Bing Crosby. He also passed a used car lot run by Leonard and Richard Werner.

As Champ drove into New Mexico, he saw what he thought to be a Mexican riding a burro. He had on prospectors clothes. As Champ stopped to pick up passengers he noticed this old man was getting on. Champ had to look twice but sure enough he was Mr. Dean of P. R. H. S., a prospector. They started talking about the 1951 Seniors. Mr. Dean told Champ that Lucille Stahl was running a taxi business in New York. Bill Griffin is playing for the New York Yankees, and his wife Loretta Westhusin travels with him. Carrol Burkholder is still married and works on the New York Times. Cleo Clements owns a chicken farm in Tennessee. Charles Stahl is playing football for Notre Dame. Wilma Taylor is married to Gordon who is a Missionary in Korea. Jack Graves is taking Georgous George's place. Marjorie Loreg is an artist at designing women's clothes. Naomi Hartnett, Pauline Fellhoelter and Glenice Stewart are married. Norman Dreiling is a progressive geologist. Phyllis Mock is modeling bathing suits and is a swimming instructor. Casey Thompson is a hot rod driver. Bernard Rempe is running a zoo full of monkeys (including himself). Zelda Wildrix is a Chief Telephone Operator in Denver. Thelma Phlieger is a private eye. Florence Ruhaak is running Flossy's Cat and Dog Hospital. Junior Eilers is operating a morgue in Missouri. Doc Hartnett is the world's champion wrestler. Lael Hrabe is batting his brains out trying to invent a new kind of tooth pick. Shirley Benedick is flying her life away in a B-29 with Jay Marcotte. Yvonne LaGessee is married and is co-owner with Dick in running a recreation center for soldiers. Galen McGhghy is janitor in the Stork Club. Peggy Pemberton is taking the place of "Pete" in the Pete Smith Specialties.

As the bus goes through Oklahoma Champ stopped at Harold Meyers CO-OP station for gas. After a long enjoyable ride Champ and Mr. Dean arrive in Plainville where the rest of the seniors live. Marilyn Cerrow is Secretary to a big oil executive in the thriving metropolis. Bob Stalnaker is Vocational Ag. teacher in P.R.H.S. and last Bernadine Rempe is working in Plainville's Hospital where Champ delivers Mr. Dean to the psychopathic ward.
